Plans for Tonight

Bill: What are you doing this afternoon?
You're all dressed up¹!

Shirley: I'm leaving for² a concert.

Bill: What? You are what?

Shirley: To attend the Back Hand Boys concert.
I've got an extra ticket if you want to come.

Bill: Umm . . . No thanks. I'm not a big fan of³ boy bands.

Shirley: I heard they're not that bad. What about tonight?

Bill: No plans. I'm going to just play some online games and surf the Internet.
Why? What's up?

Shirley: Some friends of mine are going to a KTV to sing karaoke. Do you want to come?

Bill: Nah. I know you're going to sing those terrible boy band songs and really, who wants to hear that?

Shirley: So, what are you doing tonight?

Bill: Actually, I want to buy some action figures.

Shirley: You're 35. Don't you think you're a bit too old to play with toys?

Bill: I'm not playing with them. I collect them. I've been doing it since I was a kid. My collection⁴ is worth⁵ a lot of money now.

Shirley: You know what? I'm going with you. I wouldn't mind doing some window-shopping. Besides, I'd like to see what these expensive action figures look like.

Bill: That's fine with me. See you tonight then.

Shirley: See you tonight. Bye.

A Healthy Leisure Activity

Some popular leisure¹ activities² in Taiwan are not good for your health.

Surfing the Internet and playing online games are two examples. But one 5 activity has got more and more people outside. Thanks to cycling, they are exercising and enjoying the open road.

Cycling was first introduced in the 19th century. It has now become 10 popular all around the world. This is mostly because of the health benefits³ and low costs. Going cycling is a great way to keep healthy⁴. It's the kind of exercise that can easily fit into your 15 schedule⁵. You can do it on the way to work or school.

In Taiwan, cycling has become much safer and more convenient. Bike lanes have been built in many counties 20 and cities. Some allow people to cycle next to rivers and across parks. Taiwan has become a nation of cyclists⁶.

So, if you want a healthy and fun leisure activity, get on your bike!
