What Is Your Favorite Color?

Track 05

Every woman knows that finding the right makeup to suit her skin can be tricky.¹ Applying the right color correctly can highlight² your natural beauty, while incorrect use of color can magnify³ your flaws.

The colors that you choose to wear should complement⁴ your skin tone and physical⁵ characteristics.⁶ One of the most important cosmetics purchases you will make is foundation. Most Asian women need foundation with yellow undertones.⁷ Western women with fair skin, on the other hand, should look for foundation with pink undertones. Your foundation should match the natural tones of your face. Choosing colors that are too dark or too strong for your skin will be a beauty blunder. Colors that are too light will wash out your complexion.⁸

If you have trouble deciding on the right colors, you can copy the style of a celebrity that looks similar to you in skin, eye, and hair color. What's more, it's important to remember that your sense of style is a good indicator⁹ of what looks best on your skin.

Colors tell us about a person's personality.¹⁰ For example, red is a color that represents¹¹ passion. Women who wear bright red lipstick are usually confident and aren't afraid to take risks. Pink enhances¹² a woman's feminine¹³ side. A woman who wears pink lipstick might wish to appear sweet and romantic. That is why this color is so popular with young women and brides. Part A The Best Colors for Asian Beauties

Read the following passage and circle all the words that are colors.

The most distinctive feature of Asian women is the beautiful almond shape of their eyes. To define the eyes and make them stand out, use a brown or black eyeliner. Black eye shadow can be used to add depth. Since most Asian women have cool skin tones, these colors are perfect for daytime wear: bronze, cool gray, purple, lavender, pink, brown, peach, and plum. For dramatic smokey eyes in the evening, stick to black, deep purple, deep turquoise, and navy blue. Stay away from frosty colors, which can make some women look pale and puffy.

Part B Put Your Best Face Forward

Look at these two faces and discuss the questions below with a partner.

1.
Can you identify which woman has warm skin tones and which has cool skin tones?
2.
Which colors of lipstick go best with cool skin tones?

4.
Name three shades of blush that look good on people with light skin.
5.
Which woman would look best in gold?
